

CLUSTER PANONIAN BEES NOVI SAD

- www.klasterpanonskapcela.com
- Innovative Cluster, "Pannonian bees" was founded 31.01.2014 and its headquarters in Novi Sad, Gagarinova 16. Cluster was established as an activity of the "Pannonian bees" which is being implemented under the grant cross-border cooperation between Serbia and Croatia. The realization of the project activities co-financed by the European Union from IPA funds.
- the first cluster in Serbia which brings together beekeepers and science together. 5500 members of the Cluster are registered beekeepers and almost all associations and societies of beekeepers in Vojvodina, and the membership is Beekeeping Association of Serbia, which gives the national character of cluster.
- "Pannonian bees" is to ensure the sustainability of the project "Pannonian bees" heritage and that all the benefits of the implemented project activities. This primarily refers to the beekeeping equipment with a focus on SMS scales
- Products: honey and other bee products with an emphasis on the api and api toxin preparations