

BIPOM CLUSTER BALKAN BLACK SEA FARM MACHINERY CLUSTER BELGRADE

• www.bipom.org.rs

- "BIPOM Cluster" is a cluster for improvement of competitiveness of the producers of agricultural machinery and agro-engineering, registered 9.5.2005 in Belgrade, Serbia.
- "BIPOM Cluster" offers complete solutions for the development of family farms, mini plant and services: projects, agricultural machinery, equipment, seeds and planting materials, training and support of agronomists, engineers, craftsmen, technicians and farmers local partners.

Areas of cooperation with partners in target regions Balkan and Black Sea and Africa are:

- A systematic and comprehensive support for sustainable development of the village - the concept 3F ("From Farm to Fork");
- The transfer and exchange of technology and know-how for
 - - Development of family farms and mini-plant for processing agricultural raw materials and
 - - Cooperation in the production of agricultural machinery, equipment, seeds and seedlings.
- Joint development of new machinery, hybrid seeds and seedlings to the needs and possibilities of local farmers.
- Joint participation in local, regional and global markets.
- Creating conditions for young professionals to remain in their countries and work on projects throughout the territory of branch network in joint innovation and development teams with experienced professionals.
- Cluster activities in targeted regions: Balkan Black Sea and Africa